

CONTENTS

1 Introduction and Definition of Terms

- A. Wealth
- B. Savings
- C. Investment
- D. Capitalists

2 Traditional System of Financing New Capital Formation

3 Function of Savings in the Financing of Capital Formation

4 Consequences of the Traditional Financing Methods

- A. Concentration of Ownership of Capital
- B. Denial of Access to Capital
- C. Inflation
- D. Loss of Incentive
- E. Price Disadvantage in International Trade
- F. Political Disadvantage in World Affairs
- G. Restriction of Economic Growth

5 Capital Financing Without Resort to Savings

- A. Financed-Capitalist Plan
- B. Capital Diffusion Insurance
- C. Financed-Capitalist Plan and Power Diffusion for a Free Society

6 Policy Considerations in Granting Loans Under the Financed-Capitalist Plan

- A. Anti-Monopoly Policy
- B. Promotion of Technological Improvement
- C. Increase in Capital-Owning Households
- D. Prevention of Concentration in Capital-Acquisition
- E. Investment Preferences for New Capitalist Estates
- F. Prevention or Discouragement of Speculation in Stocks
- G. Coordination of Consumer Demand and New Capital Formation
- H. Inflation Control and Concurrent Reduction of Consumer Credit
- I. Encouragement of Equity Financing and Discouragement of Debt Financing
- J. Personal Aptitudes and Educational Requirements

7 The Function of the Investment Banker under the Financed-Capitalist Plan

8 Financed-Capitalist Plan and Economic Growth

- A. Underdeveloped Economies
- B. Elimination of Restrictions on Economic Growth

9 Significance of the Financed-Capitalist Plan: Reversing the Trend Toward Socialism and Building a Capitalist Economy